

Water Sale on Saturday!

When you can buy at about half price GINGHAMS, PERCALES, WHITE WAISTS, TOWELS, MUSLINS that were wet from water coming from an open faucet from the hall above our store

These goods are thoroughly dry and show hardly any effects from the wetting they received.

To dispose of these goods we have made a deep cut. If you are lucky enough to get some of them it means a big saving, as they are almost as good as new.

300 yards Gingham at 7c per yard.—Every yard of the above is the regular 12½c quality. In consequence of being wet, will go at only 7c per yard on Saturday.

300 yards Percale at 7c per yard.—This is the best quality Percale, which always sells for 12½c per yard. These goods are not injured in the least. To dispose of the above lot we make the price only 7c per yard on Saturday.

White Waists at 69c each.—25 Muslin and Linen Waists that got slightly wet. In this lot there are Waists that sold for 98c, $1.25 and $1.50, and a few as high as $2.00 and $2.50. You can take your choice of this lot of Waists for only 69c each on Saturday. Come early if you want one of these bargains.

Eight pieces of Muslin and Lawn, in plain and figured, that were 15c per yard. To close at only 9c per yard.

One lot of Bleached Huck Towels, good size and an extra good bargain, at only 5c each.

$1.00 P. N. Corsets at only 69c per pair.—We have a few more pairs $1.00 P. N. Corsets that you can have at only 69c per pair until they are all sold.

top and one pair driving harness. C.
F. Smith, auctioneer, with D. A. Perry Real Estate agency.

For its feature act to-day, the Pavilion has one of the best known acts in the minstrel world. We refer to Harris & Nelson, the famous black-face comedians. These men have made the public laugh wherever the English language is spoken. For nearly twenty years they have been prime favorites, especially to minstrel show audiences, and have held engagements in some of the greatest buried cork aggregations the world has ever known. Mr. Harris at one time was considered the best and funniest of the public. Bare, with its laughing public, will no doubt enjoy this act to its fullest.

In one of the windows of a local store yesterday afternoon, the still form of a woman reclined on a couch. For several hours she remained almost motionless in sleep, apparently oblivious to the anxious gazes of some hundreds of people who were gathered there. Perhaps the spectacle presented was intended to be a scientific demonstration of the principles of mesmerism; but it is a safe bet that had the ghost of old Anton Meimer been talking abroad it would have suffered something of a shaking-up. Meimer asserted the existence of animal magnetism, because of its potentiality in curing disease, and, were he alive, it is hardly probable that he would have approved of its use for commercial purposes.

Early Showing of Fall Suits

Our clean-up sale of suits last week was all we could ask it to be, as we cleaned up nearly all of our summer stock of suits. From now on nearly every express will be bringing fall goods into the department, and at present we have the largest display of new Fall Suits we have ever shown so early in the season. Among these early Suits you will find some of the best cloths of the season, and some extremely natty styled Suits.

Ladies' New Fall Suits

Our early showing of Fall Suits is the largest and best we have ever shown so early in the season. Every indication is that there will be a large demand for early fall suits, and this together with the strike, which is not yet settled, means that deliveries will be slow.

At 15.00 we have a fall suit made from a medium weight gray serge. Is made in one of the best plain tailored styles, coat is made plain, thirty-six inch tailored style, is lined with a guaranteed satin and has the full canvas interlining; skirt is made good full plaited style, and is an extra value at 15.00.

At 18.00 are some very good values in a plain tailored suit, made from a nice weight novelty goods.

At 22.50 is a fine display of exceptional values in a number of different models, are made from fine serges and men's worsteds.

At 25.00 you will find some of the best values we have ever shown at the price.

At 30.00 and 35.00 are a few sample suits in colored worsteds. These we can get you in any color.

New Fall Skirts

We have just received a large invoice of our new fall Skirts in the popular cloths of the season.

At 5.50 is a skirt made in the new hobble style, cloth is a good quality Panama, comes in black and colors.

At 5.75 is a line of Skirts, in a number of new designs, cloths are Panama and serges, they are not the scant skirt but a full plaited skirt.

At 7.50 is a line of gray Skirts that are extra values, in a fine worsted goods, made in the new hobble style.

At 7.50 and 10.00 are some good values in the new spring models.
These come in the chiffon panama, serges and poplins.

In the better grades of panama, poplina and melrose, our display is the best we have shown. Priced from $8.50 to $12.50.

The Black Voile Skirt will be more popular than ever. These we have in a good showing, and these are all in the Altman voile, which is a guarantee as to service. Prices are from $10.00 to $16.50.

Goods at Half Price

While we are anxious to talk new goods, we must not let you forget that we still have a few odd Dresses, Suits and Coats that we are offering at one-half price to close out at once.

In the Black Silk Coats you can get some values that are all right to buy for next season, and the price is no more than you would pay for the silk.

At $6.00 are a few Black Panama Coats in the full lengths. These are good values and are all right for fall wear.

At one-half price are a few Covers
Coats that are always good and look well with any color you may want to wear.

At one-half price are a few light colored Muslin Dresses, in a number of good styles, and if you can get your size they are extra good trades.

We also have a few Ladies' Colored Two-piece House Dresses that we are offering at one-half price to close the season.

All Linen and Rep. Suits are selling at one-half price to close.

The Daylight Store

A SHREWD SHOPPER.

The Little Play by Which She Won Attentive Service.

"Chicago people certainly have the knack of getting on," a shopper said.
"In the suit department of a big store I met a Chicago woman who had been in New York less than a week. She said she wasn't buying anything; had just come to get the lay of the land.
In the process of getting it she stopped a cashgirl and said:

"Is that Miss Blake selling white il-len skirts to that fat woman? I understand you have a Miss Blake in the department."
"No; that is Miss Barton," said the cashgirl.

"The Chicago woman wrote the name in her address book. Then she showed me the names of saleswomen in several other stores.

"This is only a preliminary to real shopping," she said. "It pays to take the extra trouble. If I expect to buy more than $5 worth of anything at a strange store I learn beforehand the name of the saleswoman whose looks I like best. Then when I go back to buy I can say, as I shall do here tomorrow, 'I would like Miss Barton to wait on me,' and, although Miss Barton has never set eyes on me, the fact that I can call her name gives her the impression that she must have sold me a $100 dress at some time, and I get twice as good service as I would get if I knew nobody by name."—

THE HOPEFUL ATTITUDE.

It Helps One In Striving to Realize
His Ambition.

There is a tremendous power in the habit of expectancy, the conviction that we shall realize our ambition, that our dreams shall come true, says Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine. There is no uplifting habit like that of carrying an expectant, hopeful attitude of expecting that our heart yearnings will be matched with realities; that things are going to turn out well and not ill; that we are going to succeed; that, no matter what may or may not happen, we are going to be happy.

There is nothing else so helpful as the carrying of this optimistic, expectant attitude—the attitude which always looks for and expects the best, the highest, the happiest—and never allowing oneself to get into the pessimistic, discouraged mood.

Believe with all your heart that you will do what you were made to do.
Never for an instant harbor a doubt of this. Drive it out of your mind if it seeks an entrance. Entertain only the friend thoughts or ideals of the thing you are bound to achieve. Reject all thought enemies, all discouraging moods—everything which would even suggest failure or unhappiness.

Ingratitude.

"You remember that guy, Jim Burke?" asked an irate Bowery denizen. "He's dat stiff dat's doin' time up der river —Sling Sing—boiglaty—ten years. Well, you know all I done fer dat stiff.
When he was pinched didn't I put up der coin fer der lawyers? Didn't I pay der witnesses? Sure I did. De oder day I tinks I'll just go an' see dat muff just r' leave him know his frien's ain't tied de can on 'im. So I drives out to de jail an' goes into de warden's office, an' he says I gorter send me card in. Me card! Dye get dat?
Well, anyway, I writes me name on a

Women in a Sailboat.

There is just one place on a sailboat for women. That is the cockpit. Remember that and keep them there, even if it takes a somewhat pointed request. The average woman on a boat is not happy unless she is taking risks by sitting out on deck or on top of the cabin or going forward of the mast. Warn her and she laughs at you.
She does not know that she is endangering herself. Less than a year ago I saw two women knocked overboard in a heavy sea because they insisted on sitting on top of the cabin despite the protests of the man who was sailing the boat. He himself was a greenhorn and let his boat jibe, the boom clearing the top of the cabin before any one could say Jack Robinson.
—Outing.

Fear of Revenge.

"Why are you crying, my little man?"
"Cos I don't want to go to school."
"But why not?"
"Cos sister jilted the schoolmaster last night!"—London Opinion.

THE COAT SHIRT

The Coat Shirt always has its devotees. Many of our customers will have no other style of Shirt. It certainly is a great convenience in many cases and it often prevents the violation of the third commandment. The materials are the same as in our other Shirts and the Shirts are priced the same—50c, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00. If you will buy a Coat Shirt, Sir, you may then discover that you have been missing a great Shirt comfort.
